

TMS SUMMER READING

Students and Parents,

TMS is encouraging all students to read every day this summer for at least thirty minutes. The goal is to read at least six books by the end of the summer. Complete the form below and turn in on the first day of school. Students who complete this form will be given twenty Patriot Bucks (our in school currency that can be used to purchase goodies at our Patriot Buck store). These students will also be eligible to win a $50 gift card. The following books are recommended titles for each grade level. However, students may read any book as long as it is on their grade level.
